

Holy Week at Home

If a bunch of faith at home ideas for Holy Week is not what you need this week as you navigate connecting with God in new ways, read no further! Trust your instincts. Do what feels right.

Before Holy Week

*Set up a sacred space in your home. Possible items: table cloth, candles, cross, Holy images, scripture cards, Bible.

*Email pictures to Kenyetta to be posted on our Facebook Page.

An Artistic Holy Week

Select an appropriate scripture reading for each day of Holy Week and create an artistic representation of the story (suggestions here). You could use paper & crayon, playdough, blocks, or Legos. For example, check out this Lego Journey through Holy Week.

Palm Sunday

*Pick branches from your yard or neighborhood. Have a procession through each of the rooms in your home. In each room shout, “Hosanna!” and give thanks for the space. You can also make palm branches.

Maundy Thursday

*Stripping the Table - “Stripping the Altar” is an ancient custom of the Church. To do this at home, pick a table and remove all objects. Wash the table. The table could be your home altar.

*Footwashing - Jesus washed the feet of his friends as an act of love, service, and preparation. Take turns washing one another’s feet. Or, wash your hands using this prayer.

Good Friday

*Fast from technology from 12:00 to 3:00pm (or from noon on Friday-noon on Saturday).

*Meditate on the Stations of the Cross. This example of woodcuttings is one option.

Holy Saturday

*Read or listen to the traditional Holy Saturday anthem “In the midst of death” and spend some time in silence.

*Dye Easter eggs. The wax crayon method at the bottom of this post ties in with the waiting of Holy Saturday.

Easter Day Watch the sunrise, the movement from darkness into light. Here are some readings for a Sunrise Easter Breakfast.
