10 AM Holy Eucharist Rite II

The Fourth Sunday of Lent

March 14, 2021
Welcome to St. Mary’s Cathedral, a house of prayer for all people. God loves everyone without exception or reservation. We encourage you to open yourself to be blessed by beauty, on-line community, and Holy Scripture. We are so glad you are celebrating the Lenten season with us in person and in new online ways during this global pandemic, and we invite you to stay connected to the St. Mary’s community! Invite/text a neighbor or new friend to check out worship opportunities; available on our website at http://www.stmarysmemphis.org/worship/ and also on our Facebook page at https://www.facebook.com/stmarysmemphis/.

Additionally, we will be open by appointment for prayer on weekdays. You can make a reservation by calling Emily Pratt in the church office: 901-937-4788, or emailing epratt@stmarysmemphis.org.

PROCEDURES TO MITIGATE COVID-19
To help us maintain the integrity of our shared space during this period of restricted access:
• Face masks are required to be worn at all times while inside.
• Use the sanitizing gel stations placed at entrances.
• Please maintain at least 6 feet of distance from others not in your immediate household.
• Please wait to be seated.

MAKING OUR JOY COMPLETE: As members and friends of St. Mary’s it is our sacred responsibility to insure the Cathedral’s vitality for today and tomorrow. In giving, we make our joy complete. Thank you for your generous gifts. You can share securely online at www.stmarysmemphis.org. This handy QR code can get you there immediately. Other options for phone-based giving can be found at the back of this bulletin.

All things come from Thee, O Lord, and of thine own have we given Thee!

THE PENITENTIAL ORDER AND HOLY EUCHARIST: RITE TWO
The service is found in its entirety in this service leaflet

VOLUNTARY
Sinfonia (Arioso) J. S. Bach

THE WELCOME
The Very Reverend Jean Vargo

INTROIT
In your mercy, Lord you called me Halton Holgate

In your mercy, Lord, you call me, taught my sin-filled heart and mind,
else this world had still enthralled me,
and to glory kept me blind.

Now my heart sets none above you,
for your grace alone I thirst,
knowing well, that if I love you,
you, O Lord, have loved me first.

THE SOLEMN PROCESSION

THE LENTEN ACCLAMATION
The Book of Common Prayer, page 351

Celebrant Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins;
People His mercy endures for ever.

THE DECALOGUE, CONFESSION, AND ABSOLUTION

Celebrant Let us call to mind our weaknesses and assume a prayerful position as we enter into this penitential rite.

The Cantor intones each commandment; the People respond with the chant.
I am the Lord your God who brought you out of bondage.
You shall have no other gods but me.

A - men. Lord, have mer - cy.

You shall not make for yourself any idol. Amen. Lord have mercy.
You shall not invoke with malice the Name of the Lord your God. Amen. Lord have mercy.
Remember the Sabbath Day and keep it holy. Amen. Lord have mercy.
Honor your father and your mother. Amen. Lord have mercy.
You shall not commit murder. Amen. Lord have mercy.
You shall not commit adultery. Amen. Lord have mercy.
You shall not steal. Amen. Lord have mercy.
You shall not be a false witness. Amen. Lord have mercy.
You shall not covet anything that belongs to your neighbor. Amen. Lord have mercy.
Celebrant
If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

1 John 1:8,9

Deacon
Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

Minister and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant
Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

KYRIE S-88

Sung by the Choir

Kyrie eleison
Christe eleison
Kyrie eleison

Lord, have mercy upon us
Christ, have mercy upon us
Lord, have mercy upon us

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Gracious Father, whose blessed Son Jesus Christ came down from heaven to be the true bread which gives life to the world: Evermore give us this bread, that he may live in us, and we in him; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for the Fourth Sunday of Lent

Please be seated for the readings.
From Mount Hor the Israelites set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; but the people became impatient on the way. The people spoke against God and against Moses, “Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we detest this miserable food.” Then the Lord sent poisonous serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died. The people came to Moses and said, “We have sinned by speaking against the Lord and against you; pray to the Lord to take away the serpents from us.” So Moses prayed for the people. And the Lord said to Moses, “Make a poisonous serpent, and set it on a pole; and whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.

Numbers 21:4-9

Lector The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 107:1-3, 17-22

Give thanks to the Lord, whose mercies endure for ever.

1 Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, and his mercy endures for ever.
2 Let all those whom the Lord has redeemed proclaim that he redeemed them from the hand of the foe.
3 He gathered them out of the lands; from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south. Refrain.

17 Some were fools and took to rebellious ways; they were afflicted because of their sins.
18 They abhorred all manner of food and drew near to death’s door.
19 Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress.
20 He sent forth his word and healed them and saved them from the grave.
21 Let them give thanks to the Lord for his mercy and the wonders he does for his children.
22 Let them offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving and tell of his acts with shouts of joy. Refrain.
A Reading From The First Letter of Paul to the Ephesians, The 2nd Chapter, Beginning at Verse 1

You were dead through the trespasses and sins in which you once lived, following the course of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work among those who are disobedient. All of us once lived among them in the passions of our flesh, following the desires of flesh and senses, and we were by nature children of wrath, like everyone else. But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ-- by grace you have been saved— and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God-- not the result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.

Hymn at the Sequence 686, Vs. 1, 2

Come, thou fount of every blessing,

Come, thou Fount of every blessing,
tune my heart to sing thy grace;
streams of mercy, never ceasing,
call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet,
sung by flaming tongues above.
Praise the mount I'm fixed upon it mount of God's redeeming love.

Nettleton

Here I find my greatest treasure;
hither by thy help I've come;
and I hope, by thy good pleasure,
safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger,
wandering from the fold of God;
his, to rescue me from danger,
bought me with his precious blood.

The Gospel

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, “Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. ”Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed. But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God.”

John 3:14-21

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Please be seated at the invitation of the Preacher.

Sermon The Very Reverend Jean Vargo
We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

When our faith is weak and our hopes seem empty, come to us, Spirit, and fill us again. You are rich in mercy, and our need is deep.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Lead us to let go of the burdens we carry: the guilt, the shame, the unrealistic expectations. Lead us to depend on you.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Guide each of us in the decision making of our common life: in our family relationships, our churches, and our communities. In the Anglican Cycle of Prayer, we pray for the Province of the Anglican Church of Chile; in our Diocese we pray for St. Anne’s, Millington; and for the West Tennessee Haiti Partnership.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Pull us closer to your compassionate heart. We pray for those in pain, for those who worry, for those whose livelihood is fragile, for those who grieve; especially Maren Manfra, Mickey and June Mitchell, Brenna Shafer, Laura Kathryn Redden, Patrick Vargo Albertson, Ramon Fracchi, the Eldridge family, Ron and Dean Thomas, Sandy Franks, Andrew Leslie Smith Jr., Robert Moody, Martha Farrimond, John Cutrell, the Sawyer family, Julie Powell, Judy McMillan, the Meyer family, Irma Lee Macklin, Liz McQuire, Ty Legge, Bena Cates, Kerry Davis, Mitch and Becca Mize and families, David Adams, Jessica Oliver, Tom Moore and family, the Newberry family, Mimi Baker, Ronnie Rodgers, Dave Della Rocco and family, Sally Wolcott and family, all those on the Cathedral Prayer List, and those we now name.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.
Push us into the world to be compassionate advocates for your expansive love among all the creatures you have created.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Receive those who have died into the arms of your abundant mercy, especially Dianne Fletcher, Iolis Carruthers, the Rev. Jerry Crook, Iolis Carruthers, Ann Thomas, the 525,000 Americans who have died with Covid, and those we now name. Comfort the loved ones who mourn their loss.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We pray for the blessings we now name, and for those celebrating a birthday in the coming week: Mark Henderson, Cynthia Moseley, Mallory Ann Harris, Christopher Carruthers, Janel Kragt Bakker, W.J. Michael Cody, and Julie Ross. And we pray with great expectations along with Jon Williams and Patty Spielman.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Celebrant

Lord Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles, "Peace I give to you; my own peace I leave with you;" Regard not our sins, but the faith of your Church, and give to us the peace and unity of that heavenly City, where with the Father and the Holy Spirit you live and reign, now and for ever. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant  The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People  And also with you.

Please share the peace of God as you go about your daily life.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

THE OFFERING

We thank you for your continued support to the Cathedral’s work of sharing God’s love and peace with Memphis. The success of our community is built on your offerings of time, talent, and treasure!

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who was tempted in every way as we are, yet did not sin. By his grace we are able to triumph over every evil, and to live no longer for ourselves alone, but for him who died for us and rose again. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus S-114

The people stand or kneel. The Celebrant continues Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.
He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

FRACTION ANTHEM-LAMB OF GOD:

THE POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Loving God, we give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ’s Body and Blood. Now send us forth a people, forgiven, healed, renewed; that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

THE BLESSING

CLOSING HYMN 473, VS 1, 2, 4
Lift high the cross
Crucifer

Lift high the cross, the love of Christ proclaim till all the world adore his sacred name.

Led on their way by this triumphant sign,
the hosts of God in conquering ranks combine.
Each newborn servant of the Crucified
Bears on the brow the seal of him who died.

So shall our song of triumph ever be:
Praise to the Crucified for victory!
